Program Overview

California Family Law Report (CFLR) will present the biennial Advanced Family Law Course (AFLC) in June 2025. This comprehensive and intensive program showcases an all-star faculty of justices, judges, and lawyers.

AFLC is designed for experienced family law practitioners looking to fortify their knowledge, as well as attorneys new to family law looking to set themselves apart from their peers. It is also a “must” for those preparing to take the Certified Family Law Specialist Exam. Our expert faculty will provide test-taking tips and suggestions on how to improve your study skills. Attendees will take a practice exam that will be reviewed at the end of the course.

The program will consist of 6 days (33 hours) of webcast presentations and 13+ hours of on-demand lectures, plus an additional 30.5 hours of optional, video-on-demand lectures. This State Bar-approved course will satisfy the entire educational requirement for Family Law Specialist certification (or recertification).

Past attendees, as well as first-timers, will benefit from AFLC's guidance on complex family law issues and review of new developments in the field. This is truly a “don't miss” event!

MCLE/Specialization Credit & Course Materials

Approval of specialization credit in Family Law has been granted by the California Board of Legal Specialization and approval of MCLE credit for this activity has been granted by The State Bar of California in the amount of 45 hours. The total hours of the program are 46 hours – however, 1 hour of the program covers test-taking skills, which does not qualify for MCLE credit.

Exclusive Bonus: Enrollees will also receive access to optional video on-demand lectures in the amount of 30.5 hours of MCLE credit, including 2 hours of Legal Ethics and 1 hour of Civility in the Legal Profession. Approval of specialization in Family Law has been granted by the California Board of Legal Specialization.

The course materials include a copy of the complete set of slides and worksheets used by the panelists, plus other supplemental materials. Enrollees in the webcast series will be able to download course materials before the program and view them online during the program.

California Certified Family Law Specialist (CFLS) Exam

The specialization exam will be on held Thursday, October 30, 2025 (next exam thereafter is in 2027). Contact the State Bar directly at 415-538-2120 to register for the exam. Exam registration will also be available at <https://www.calbar.ca.gov/Attorneys/Legal-Specialization/Becoming-a-Certified-Specialist/Exam-Information>. Please check this link for exam updates.

A practice examination and test-taking skills session will be offered on the last day (Day 6) of the course. If you are taking the CFLS exam, we strongly encourage you to attend this session. Additional information regarding the practice test will be announced at the program.

THE RUTTER GROUP CALIFORNIA PRACTICE GUIDE

FAMILY LAW

By Judge William P. Hogoboom (Ret.) and Justice Donald B. King (Ret.)

Contributing Authors: Michael Asimow, Bruce E. Cooperman
and Judge Anne Kiley

Family Law is your trusted guide to mastering domestic relations and dissolution practice in California. This comprehensive resource covers every critical aspect of family law, including pendente lite relief, support, custody, property, tax, agreements, modification, domestic partnerships, and enforcement. Written with clarity and precision, this resource provides a thorough analysis of applicable case law, statutes, and rules. Years of expertise are condensed into practical, actionable guidance, enabling you to manage your time efficiently and serve your clients effectively across all phases of family law. Each topic and procedure is systematically explored and broken down into easy-to-understand steps, ensuring you have the knowledge and confidence to achieve exceptional results for your clients.

THE RUTTER GROUP CALIFORNIA PARALEGAL MANUAL

FAMILY LAW

By John P. Goffin and Douglas R. Parker

Family law paralegals are highly valued and depended upon to provide substantive and procedural support in this challenging and emotionally-charged field. This manual is written especially for paralegals by a highly respected family law attorney, along with a senior paralegal and Rutter Group author with extensive family law experience. Their combined talents in the field give readers the advantage and benefit of learning the fundamentals of family law from both perspectives, helping the paralegal become an optimum and essential part of any family law practice, large or small.
